

Kostas Yaxoglou

Born in Sparti in 1975, pianist Kostas Yaxoglou studied teatrology, translation, and jazz piano. Active in various music groups since 1996, he completed his Bachelor in Jazz Piano in Amsterdam. A music educator since 2009, he's a key member of Athens' jazz scene, collaborating with prominent musicians and co-founding the Charlie Haden tribute band B.Y.S. Trio.

With a versatile background in music, he has expanded his repertoire, performing in diverse genres and styles. As an experienced educator, Kostas shares his passion for music by teaching in both public and private schools. His contributions to the jazz community, including the B.Y.S. Trio, have helped to solidify his reputation as a talented and influential pianist.
